Columbia Credit Union Hires Doug Chambers as Vice President Branch Services

Vancouver, WA – Columbia Credit Union announces the hiring of Doug Chambers as Vice President Branch Services. Chambers is charged with leading the strategic development and management of the credit union’s 12 retail branches to drive maximum productivity, sales, service and growth.

Chambers holds a bachelor’s degree from Utah State University and most recently served as a Regional Manager/Performance Coach for an Idaho credit union. Active in the community, Chambers previously served as a volunteer for Paint the Town and Relay for Life, and is looking forward to volunteering in similar roles locally or joining Clark County business organizations.

Originally from Idaho, Chambers currently lives in Clark County with his family. “I look forward to helping members successfully manage their finances and building on Columbia’s reputation for service excellence,” he said.
